

A Static Lullaby

I am all alone and I see you waiting by the phone
In my dreams in my dreams
Put your past on hold
I'm dying inside
Put your blood, sweat and tears on a line out to dry
Cause it's cold in here
Will someone hit it

Floor, time is fading faster than before
Innocent mind arbitrary reason why bloody beginnings

I am blind from sounds but I hear the light
It's coming near in my dreams in my dreams
Take your time
Lay down face flat on the ground
Take a deep breath in
But don't make a sound
Cause it's cold in here
Will someone hit it

I take back everything I said
