Looks to kill moves a thrill away from funerals outside makeup's vain
Eyes are wide awake from everything but shy
Take your pick fashions host styles nothing but a ghost
Feelings gone genre's on a roll and taking sides

We will change the world
We will make them see
We will open eyes
Show them who will be on the top in the end at the finish line
Tell your friends goodbye cause they're wasting your time

Empty floors open soars
Soaked in bitter endings
Why feelings die after lies
Just to justify the right lose the fight
Take a hit taste defeat and not a win
Feelings gone genre's on a roll and taking sides

Genres on a roll and taking side
Empty floors and open soars
