

A Static Lullaby "Radio Flyer"

It's cold, it's raining
And Connecticut is hating me
Snowflakes on the gallows
In the fall serenity
(yeah[6x])

[joe Screaming]
Lay me down on thorns and nails
Splintering the bones
Lay me down on thorns and nails
The last one to pass in his bed

[joe screaming]
Again...leave me alone, i'm sorry...sorry
Lay me down
Poison nails
Lay me down
In this bed
He's warm, he's floating
And the angel's wings are carrying
The radio flyer sends for him
And the mother now buries it
Lay me down on thorns and nails
Splintering the bones
He last one to pass in his bed

[joe screaming]
I'll open this bottle of wine [x4]
