Feeling so tired, but I'll find my way
I cannot come home
Where will I stay... I don't know
All the past tense and the regrets
As the bad times fade
Let only the good ones adhere to your memory
And your thoughts of me
You're beautiful in many ways
Watching as you rant and rave
And I got so tired so I turned the page
Hold me, Hold Me a bit longer
Don't let go of me tonight
Feeling so tired, but I'll find my way
I cannot come home,
Where will I stay, where will I stay,
But I know there's worse in this world today
I've been given love and given health
Don't know anyone luckier than myself

Hold me, Hold Me a bit longer
Don't let go of me tonight
Hold me, Hold me a bit longer
You're everything what beautiful looks like
You're everything what beautiful looks like

(Instrumental section)

You're everything what beautiful looks like
You're everything I'm looking for tonight

As the past tense and the regrets
As the bad times fade
Watching new ones come and go
Pretty girls never getting old
But I still miss you and I cannot sleep
Watching weekends come and go
Now you've made you bed
Lie in it alone
