If it seems that I'm too quiet

That's 'cause I'm missin' her

My mind tells me I have to fight

But I can't help missin' her

You'd better leave me alone, you'd better leave me
alone

Until I can think about her without feelin' sorry for myself

You'd better leave me be till I don't need her anymore

I don't wanna see her again until I'm sure I'm over her

But still feeling tired and wanting

Is not like I thought it would be

Love just cannot end at parting

My world's dropped from under me

You'd better leave me alone, you'd better leave me
alone

Until I can think about her without feelin' sorry for
myself

You'd better leave me be till I don't need her anymore

I don't wanna see her again until I'm sure I'm over her

Oh, oh, oh, oh

Oh, oh, oh, oh
