Hear the winds of Babylon
There's a winner in you
Listen to your heart
Every dream will come true

Oh that's no story, that's no lie
You can win if you will try
Don't tell me you can't swim against the streams
Tonight the sun will rise in west
I know you can be the best
Oh when you walk the boulevard of dreams
Nobody will get you down
You're a fighter, you're not a clown - I know
I swear you - believe me - the time will show

Baby stop - it's alright
Come on you can win the fight
Take the chance - it's the story of your life
Baby stop - run and hide
Oh tomorrow and tonight
Don't give up - baby only strongs survive

And if you wanna be a winner
Oh don't be the greatest sinner
When you play this game tonight
If you wanna be a hero
Baby come on count to zero
When you play this game tonight
And the time is on your side
It's alright

There's a winner in you
Every dream will come true

All what you want is what you get
There's no reason to feel sad
You're not a loser of old movie scenes
I know you can win the game
You're a fighter and that's your name - I know
I swear you - believe me - the time will show

Baby stop - it's alright
Come on you can win the fight
Take the chance - it's the story of your life
Baby stop - run and hide
Oh tomorrow and tonight
Don't give up - baby only strong survive

And if you wanna be a winner
Oh don't be the greatest sinner
When you play this game tonight
If you wanna be a hero
Baby come on count to zero
When the time is on your side
Every loser feels so lonely
You can be the one and only
When you try a brandnew start
Oh it's burning like a fire
No one stops a heart's desire
When you do it from your heart
