"Leave The Light On"

IÂ'm sick of asking myself "can it be done?"
I canÂ't bear to fight youÂ...
Â...or even turn to run
Just having you close turns the night to day youÂ're the only reason why I was meant to stay

IÂ'm sick of pushing myself "can't I be done?"
Fighting so many battles but none can be won the dark bleeds through the days run by everything I believed in was just a painful lie

just leave the light on before you go IÂ'm begging you please leave the light on before you go

I keep on falling down when I try to run please donÂ't turn away this is all IÂ've become Living without you baby is not what IÂ've bargained for I finally saw myself, when you turned to close that door

Just leave the light on before you goÂ...oh please donÂ't go
Just leave the light on before you goÂ...oh please
donÂ't go
IÂ'm sick of asking myself "can it be done?"
I canÂ't bear to fight youÂ...
Â...or even turn to run
Just leave the light on before you goÂ...oh please, please donÂ't go

Â...Â...please leave the light on
