You said, you and me
Nothing else, can come between Cold-hearted, words to say
To the one that gave, that heart you took away

I asked for joy, you gave me pain
I asked for sun, you gave me rain
I can't take no more
I can't break the rain
And turn around and face the storm

So here we go again with a love fight
Now a days it feels like I ain't doing nothing right
I mean the signs were always there, guess it wasn't right
But now I see the light

I'm not gonna stay here and cry, I'm out the door
I just don't have the strength anymore
I'm not gonna stay here and fight with you no more
'Cause I just don't have the strength anymore (whoa whoa ya ya)
I just don't have the strength anymore (whoa whoa ya ya)
'Cause I just don't have the strength anymore
