Was your day slowly spent
With frowns and discontent
Were you never introduced
To a single compliment

Were there times you felt
You were treated unfair
Remember life is fragile
So handle it with prayer

Do you sometimes wonder why
You feel the need to cry
And nothing else will help
No matter how hard you try

Whenever your heart seems to be untrue
Remember He's always there for you

He's always there for you
In every walk of life you walk through
When something goes wrong with everything you do
Jesus will still be there for you

Will someone be his slave
By a thoughtless word you said
Or is their heart now open
From a simple smile instead

Do you ever question
Life here on this land
We'll He works in a way
We don't always understand

If your deed's done today
We're only done half way
Of the many you encountered
Did you help one find his way

If your faith can handle
The human things can do
Then He'll always
Be there for you

He's always there for you
In every walk of life you walk through
When something goes wrong with everything you do
Jesus will still be there for you

He's always there for you
In every walk of life you walk through
When something goes wrong with everything you do
Jesus will still be there for you
Jesus is always there for you
