I'M NOT QUITE THROUGH CRYING
WRITER LEW DeWITT

Perhaps I outta mingle with the crowd just a little bit more Perhaps I outta find somebody new Perhaps I outta hang a happy sign on my front door But I'm not quite through cryin' over you, not quite I'm not quite through cryin' over you. I'd kinda like to throw a party and have a little fun tonight Have some laughs invite a friend or two If I could just get started I could have some fun alright But I'm not quite through cryin' over you, just yet I'm not quite through cryin' over you. It ain't no trouble for a happy heart, (happy heart) A laughin' habit sounds a happy fling, (happy fling) My friends all call me ole worry wart But they don't know the trouble That a broken heart can bring. I know several girls to call they'd really be glad to go And I could wend a heart before the night was through But I just have to make believe that I'm a happy Joe And I'm not quite through cryin' over you, not quite I'm not quite through cryin' over you. It ain't no trouble for a happy heart, (happy heart) A laughin' habit sounds a happy fling, (happy fling) My friends all call me ole worry wart But they don't know the trouble That a broken heart can bring. I know several girls to call they'd really be glad to go And I could wend a heart before the night was through But I just have to make believe that I'm a happy Joe And I'm not quite through cryin' over you, not quite. I'm not quite through cryin' over you, almost I'm not quite through cryin' over you, just about I'm not quite through cryin' over you...
