"She Never Altogether Leaves"

It wouldn't be so bad if it were over
Cause when she's gone I surely feel the need Someday to walk right out and start all over but she never altogether leaves

Being by myself is not so bad right now
That empty closet and just one mouth to feed It's only late at night that I remember that she never altogether leaves
I got over the hate but I still love her
And this broken down old home's no place to be Where memories of her will always linger cause that girl never altogether leaves
It wouldn't be so bad if it were over...
[guitar]
Being by myself is not so bad right now...
No she never altogether leaves
