I've got union dues and taxes and a mortgage due this month

And Fred got that promotion 'stead of me

I've got more than I can handle and twice what I can do

But through it all, thank God, I've got you

I've got rooms needin' paper, my old car's still in the shop

Billy broke his arm today in school

Momma called and said her stove went out, daddy's got the flu

But through it all, thank God, I've got you

When things start gettin' tough, it seems like you do too

When there just ain't enough, you always make do

When it gets more than I can handle and I don't know what to do

I just stop and thank God, I've got you

I've got kids askin' questions I can't answer 'bout the Lord

Finally put up my old pick-up truck for sale

And that note I signed for uncle Ed is three weeks overdue

Honey, here's hopin' the same ain't true with you

When things start gettin' tough, it seems like you do too

When there just ain't enough, you always make do

When it gets more than I can handle and I don't know what to do

I just stop and thank God, I've got you

I just stop and thank God, I've got you
