So let's begin at the beginning
And make it nice, so very nice
Did you ever have another
Who didn't think the way you think?

You'd better hold on a minute, wait for a minute
Don't leave me on my knees

If I recover and then discover
It's all a game, it's just the same
Are you believing that I am leaving
You're very wrong, so very wrong

I'm gonna wait for a minute, hold on a minute
Back down I'm on my knees

I don't want any more to be left all by myself
In a world, crazy world, full of tears and broken dreams
I can't go on forever living my life with you in mind
I don't know, I just don't know

Long, long ago
Where did it go?
Can't go back, no
Oh no, no, no

You'll have to learn if I return
It's gonna be the way to be
If you believe you wanna leave
Take my advice and don't think twice

You'd better run for your cover, run for your lover
I won't be on my knees

I don't want any more to be left all by myself
In a world, crazy world, full of tears and broken dreams
I can't go on forever living my life with you in mind
I can't say, I just can't say

Long, long ago
Where did it go?
Can't go back, no

Oh no, no, no

So let's begin at the beginning
Did you ever have another?

So let's begin at the beginning
Did you ever have another?

So let's begin at the beginning
