Where can I go? who can I find to talk to Boy, do I know it don't look so bright to me Because I'm heading down the road, carrying the load on my shoulders
Passing time away, drinking through the day alone

How could I know 'cos you never show your feelings
Why did you go? why d'ya walk out on me
I couldn't see the cards that you were dealing It's you I can't shake, I just gotta break your spell

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the end
Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend

You gotta see, you gotta see my meaning
How can I survive? I'm out here on my own You gotta give, give me something to believe in Somebody to love, somebody to take me home

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again
Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the
end
Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend

Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
Oh I don't want to be member of the lonely again
Oh I'm a-heading for the gutter and I'm close to the
end
Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
Because I'm looking for the cover of a temporary friend
