(ft. Eugenia Vlasova)

I know the world of dreams exists
I'll show you there just touch my lips
I'll be the breath of your desire
My feelings you should rely on

Once in the morning tender and warming
Wind of hope will wake you up
Follow my motion over the ocean
I am flying to my star

I see the sorrow in your eyes
You'll soon be in the paradise!
Don't be afraid- you've got to call me
And only you've got to hold me

Once in the morning tender and warming
Wind of hope will wake you up
Follow my motion over the ocean
I am flying to my star
