Once upon a time not so very long ago
There wasn't such a thing as a rock 'n roll show
You had to sit at home and listen to the radio
Then came a man with a rockin' guitar
Found himself a beat and he played it near and far
Everybody danced and sang and let the good times
roll
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
He traveled round the world in a rock-n-roll band
He stood there like a giant with a guitar in his hand
Everybody danced and sang and let the good times
roll
Nobody cared about the clothes he would wear
Nobody cared about the color of his hair
Everybody came to see and let the good times roll
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Now we've got the rhythm in us now we've got the rock
Time didn't matter never living by the clock
Everybody came to hear him playing his rock-n-roll
Then came a line when the music didn't rhyme
He couldn't find the rhythm cause he couldn't find the time
But still the people came to listen to the good times roll
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Again again again again

Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Again again again again
Again again again again
Why don't you do it
Why don't you do it again
Why don't you do it
