(Chorus)

Iâ€™m not looking for a reason to believe

I do

I breathe

Thatâ€™s enough for me

I hear the heart is where the mind,

And the body come together

If so, mineâ€™s been broken since the day I was born

Iâ€™m tired of the divide

And Iâ€™m not getting any younger

How does it feel to be whole?

To live â€“ surrender this empty old resistance

To live

(Chorus)

Iâ€™ve wasted so much time

Coming up with questions

Asking, â€œWhy?â€ has never answered much for me

And really, who am I?

To never feel the weight of burden?

When was I promised simplicity?

To live â€“ let go of this tired old resistance

To live

(Chorus)

They say, â€œDonâ€™t worry â€“ we all sink slowly,

It happens to the best of us.â€

We all sink slowly
