Genuflect, show respect, don't forget it's a papal command
Take your seat, all you need is your rosary beads in your hand
Time to start, cross your heart, be a part of the mystical band

Look at everybody trying to find their own place
Looking for a heaven up high
Working just to get into a state of grace
We know we're gonna need it when we die

Say your prayers, feel your fears, shed your tears
You're afraid of hell's fire, as you sit there and pray
You'll get carried away by the choir
And the incense is sweet, takes you right off your feet
Makes you higher

Look at everybody trying to find their own place
Looking for a heaven up high
Working just to get into a state of grace
We know we're gonna need it when we die

Look at everybody trying to find their own place
Looking for a heaven up high
Working just to get into a state of grace
We know we're gonna need it when we die
