[Joshua]

Your lips are moving but I can't hear you wish you would talk your way right over here

[Meghan]

I see you looking, boy, but I can't feel you why don't we just disappear?

[Joshua]

I'm getting jealous of the way he's leaning you make him feel like it's all alright.

[Meghan]

Boy, if you wanna know the things I've been thinking, you'd be meeting me outside

[Together]

Cause last night out was calling you mine discovering each other til the morning light
and I don't know where this is going,
but it sure feels right

I don't wanna leave you here tonight
so let's do what we did last night...again

[Joshua]

Your friends are looking like they're ready for leaving.
Girl, you look like you can't make up your mind.

[Meghan]

I'm fumbling, acting like I can't find my keys well, maybe you could give me a ride

[Together]

Cause last night out was calling you mine
discovering each other til the morning light
and I don't know where this is going
but it sure feels right

I don't wanna leave you here tonight
so let's do what we did last night...again

I can't wait, I can't let you go I can't wait, I won't let you go let you go

Cause last night out was calling you mine
discovering each other til the morning light
and I don't know where this is going
but it sure feels right
I don't wanna leave you here tonight
so let's do what we did last night...again

[Joshua]

Your lips are moving, but I can't hear you wish you would talk your way right over here..
