Sungazer look to the sky
Seeking truth will you ever learn why
Your vision's lost from the light of the sun
As you bask in the hellish light of the sun

Sings praises to his star of doom
The light that cast him to his darkened tomb
What was the path of that light he seeks
A flaming sphere that brought him to his knees

Sungazer ride though the planes of your mind
Seeking truth even though you are blind
Was your truth the one that was real
Or is illusion the force you feel

Sungazer - You live your life out for the sun
Sungazer - You've Feelings of love for no one
Sungazer - Forsees and predicts his own doom
Sungazer - Your place is by the moon
Sungazer look to me eyes
The planet turn, do you feel all the lies
Is the flesh one with the soul
Are both forces one in control

You feel the warmth but cannot see the light
Set for good but you know not wrong from right
Your weary journey treads the narrow path
Your site is gone, so sad it doesn't last

Sungazer feel the sun's force
You've looked too long upon its source
Cry your tears but you shouldn't weep
Locked in the land of eternal sleep

Sungazer - You live your life out for the sun
Sungazer - You've Feelings of love for no one
Sungazer - Forsees and predicts his own doom
Sungazer - Your place is by the moon
