Selwyn Brown, we've had our differences
Now it's time to patch things up
We've been through trying times
Though the going got so rough

Give thanks and praise that we have made it
Making a new start
I know a place for you, baby
Deep inside my heart

We're on that magic road
We need each other so
Never to let go
It's love for ever more

Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough
Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough

So much wasted time
On who that it was to blame
And now that we've both realized
Before it was too late

This time around, yes, we can make it
I feel it in the air
I'm coming home to a special lady
She'll be waiting

Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough
Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough

House of love, house of love
House of love, house of love, house of love

This adoration, yes, is safe and sound, my friend
Compassion built on solid ground
Oh, it's joy for both of us to reconcile
Oh yeah, under one roof together, side by side

We're on that magic road
We need each other so
Never to let go
It's love for ever more

Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough
Our joy is living in a house of love
This kind of love, you can't get enough

This a house of love
Can't get enough
This a house of love
Can't get enough

Our joy's living in a
Living in a, living in a
