We've got our lives to live
So let's make a start
One life, one love, one aim
And of one heart

Our love is reaching new horizons
Stretching further and higher than before
Sometimes it feels so inspiring
I wanna turn out the light
Settle down and close the door

Please don't ever leave my side
'Cause you're always on my mind
You are truly magical, you are one of a kind
Though we've had our sticky times
We were able to survive, this love is real

Soul of my soul, each beat of my heart
You light up my life, let's make a start
Soul of my soul, dream of my dreams
You light up my life, let's make it right
Soul of my soul, you light up my light

The thrill of our first encounter
Lingers deep within my consciousness
How can we ever forget
Our first touch on the night
That we first met

Please don't ever leave my side
'Cause you're always on my mind
You are truly magical, you are one of a kind
Though we've had our sticky times
We were able to survive, this love is real

Soul of my soul, each beat of my heart
You light up my life, let's make a start
Soul of my soul, dream of my dreams
You light up my life, let's make it right
Soul of my soul, you light up my light

Rub me dub me like dis ya

Love me love me like dat deh

We've got our lives to live
So let's make a start
One love, one love, one aim
And of one heart

Please don't ever leave my side
'Cause you're always on my mind
You are truly magical, you are one of a kind
Though we've had our sticky times
We were able to survive, this love is real
