Dreamed you were running last night
Oh, not searching for me
Oh well, Holy Lord, I am a prisoner
In the ground and in your bed

God, I wish I did this right
Only God knows how to do this right

And when I let them go
Oh, that's when I'm gonna love again
(Love, love, love, love)
And in the ground are the keys to this boat
That wants to sail again
(This boat just wants to sail to you, love)

God, I wish I did this right
Only God knows how to do this right

Oh well, I say when, when, when, when, when

Dreamed I was running last night
Still searching for you
(You I'll love again)
Oh well, Holy Lord, I am prisoner
In the ground and in your bed

Oh well, God, I wish I did this right
Only God knows how to do this right

Oh well, I say when, when, when, when, when
When will I let you go, when will I let you go
When will I let you go, when will I let you go
When will I let you go, when will I let you go
When will I let you go
