Up all night
anger and spite tell me that im right cause im drowning this is just great cause i know at this rate a life full of hate's not worth living wish you were dead is that what i said

escaping the confines of feeling just disappear get away from here its me you should fear can you here me

Chorus: i close my eyes and ignore all the lies burning inside
can you feel it know its right but i just cannot hide
