"Pirate Ship"

Lets go on a pirate ship across the deep blue sea
Pillaging the villages we had tried so hard to leave

I'll be Captain Black

And you'll be the Maiden of the Sea

Underneath the poop-deck

Come away and stowaway with me

Where's your buried treasure -- X marks the spot

Am I getting cold or am I getting hot for you

Lets go on a pirate ship across the deep blue sea
Pillaging the villages we had tried so hard to leave

I'll be Captain Black

And you'll be the Maiden of the Sea

We can hardly take it

Happy stowaways are we

We can hardly take it

Happy stowaways are we.
