No one else will ever know how to love me
Maybe I am broken
Deep inside I believe that you belong to me
But this remains unspoken

And I want you so much
You're not like the rest
It hurts when we touch
I love you to death
I can't breathe and I can't sleep
It's killing me
I love you to death

Late night when I'm alone
Your memory's haunting
Don't you miss me too
And sometimes I think that if I wish hard enough
I could be with you

And i want you so much
You're not like the rest
It hurts when we touch

I love you to death
I can't breathe and I can't sleep
It's killing me
I love you to death

I can't be saved
The price I pay
When you're away
I love you too
I'm stranded without love
But you still thrill me
If you leave me long enough
It might just kill me
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

And I can't breathe and I can't sleep
It's killing me
I love you to death
I can't be saved

The price I pay
When you're away
I love you to death
Love you so much
It hurts when we touch
I love you to death
