You and me in this world
They do their best to make us part ourselves, separate ourselves
And I know that it hurts
They might troubling when I'm close to you I won't lose myself
They don't have enough
To make us tell I trust

Yeah it's you and me against the world
'Cause you know that I've always been your girl
And it's true I believe you and me were meant to be against the world
against the world

It's a town and a place There's to stay forever near

They don't have enough
To make us tell I trust
Yeah yeah yeah

It's you and me against the world
'Cause you know that I've always been your girl

And it's true I believe
you and me were meant to be against the world
against the world

It's you and me against the world
We don't need their money
We don't need their words
We don't need what they have anymore

And it's you and me against the world
'Cause you know that I've always been your girl
And it's true I believe
you and me were meant to be

Yeah it's you and me against the world
'Cause you know that I've always been your girl

against the world (x9)
