Sometimes all I try to do
Is maybe sleep, sleep 'til noon
And now I'm thinking less is more more
Will I ever get out, out the door?

Hey, what's the point anyway?
Another meaningless day
Is there any reason why
I shouldn't waste all my time?

I need a change of scenery
Unlock the door and set me free

I wanna live like today could be my last day
To give all I have before it's too late
Goodbye to all the fear and doubt
'Cause this love is what life's about

Sometimes I lie awake at night
Playing back my whole life
If the way I see this world could change
All the differences would fade

I'm gonna play it out again
When I hear Your voice, I'll take Your hand
I'll try to change what I've become
And love like Jesus does

I need a change of scenery
Unlock the door and set me free

I wanna live like today could be my last day
To give all I have before it's too late
Goodbye to all the fear and doubt
'Cause this love is what life's about

Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey

I wanna live like today could be my last day
To give all I have before it's too late
I wanna live like today could be my last day

To give all I have before it's too late
Goodbye to all the fear and doubt
'Cause this love is what life's about

Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
