So we sit at this table with our hands in our laps
And we have a few drinks
And we share a few laughs
But now those days have passed
And they're not coming back
It's a shame, because that's all that I had

And we'll sing out loud for hours
Until the morning that we know we can't avoid
These nights are notable and priceless
I swear that every word I say
I mean until my dying day
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing

So keep things quiet
Until the rest of the street falls asleep
Then we'll break out
And show everyone just what we're made of We're so young
Let's abuse it all and have a little fun
Ill drink to that lets all drink to that

And we'll sing out loud for hours
Until the morning that we know we can't avoid
These nights are notable and priceless
I swear that every word I say
I mean until my dying day
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing

I've got some problems
But we got ten dollars
That's enough to get us wasted before the night is over
These past five days I've been completely sober
But tonight I'm getting ripped wide open
(x2)

And we'll sing out loud for hours
Until the morning that we know we can't avoid
These nights are notable and priceless

I swear that every word I say
I mean until my dying day
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing
It's a shame when I wake I can't recall a thing
