Getting over you was so hard to do until yesterday
I found somebody new to love me like you did, just a little differently
Instead of holding hands, were standing on the sand
She's swimming in the ocean naked Instead of holding hands, like holy monks do when they pray

Were making out
Were making out
Were making out

She said lets go lets go
I said i don't know if i can
She said let go let go

And honestly i don't know i don't know
What to do i'm completely captivated but she says
It's so easy
We can do it
So i turned to her and said lets go.

Lets go

And it hasn't been to long but the feelings haven't gone
I'm ready to move on
And i've got this misery to blame
See i was never good at sunsets anyway
Night time seems to suit me better Strangers in the night will find their trails alright and they play

Were making out
Were making out
Were making out

She said let go lets go
I said i dont know if i can
She said lets go let go

And honestly i don't know i don't know
What to do i'm completely captivated what she said
It's so easy
We can do it
So i turned to her and said lets go

You're as opposite as black and white
You're as seperate as day and night

And i know
Theres a comfort in being in control

But this is something so seductive, seductive
We both know know it

And she said lets go lets go
I said i don't know what will happen
Well she said let go let go
And honestly i don't want to know don't want to know what to do
Oh but she said
It's so easy
We can do it
Just come a little closer
So i turned to her and said lets go

She said lets go lets go
She said she said lets go
