Holding On.....

I'll crack the sky with my screams. My frustration

Breaking everything.

I embraced you. And I erased you. Lies defaced you.

I wanna get on with my life.....

They'll take everything Falling Falling Falling Further
from my.

Life....See what you did for me. Holding Holding

Holding on to what is left.

Suddenly I don't need you anymore.

Suddenly I don't need you anymore.

Your in the fight of your life. But things aren't as bad as it seems.

I embraced you. Your eyes have shamed you. I erase you.

Its time to get on with my life...

They'll take everything Falling Falling Falling Further
from my.

Life....See what you did for me. Holding Holding

Holding on to what is left.

Suddenly I don't need you anymore.

Suddenly I don't need you anymore.

And all the times you said you were there for me.

Stood up to back my life.. Got up again to fight

Blinded by the lies, left for all to see.

Stripped down, start to fight. I can't erase these lines.

I denied, I denied and I defied the last thing you said to me.

Suddenly I don't need you anymore.

Suddenly I don't need. I don't need you anymore.

Holding Hold..ing Holding Hold..ing Holding Hold...ing

Holding On.
