Everybody thought this was

Going to be one more freakshow

Everybody thought this was going

To be one more of those jokes

Chorus:

It's another world

It's a wild world

It's another world

It's a wild world

My generation's not going to see

Year two thousand fifteen

I live out at sea to save

My life from the H.I.V.

Chorus

No one knows what's going on

Cause the world is on fire

The word is out the people are

Down and we're on the run

Is it justice from heaven,

Or sent from hell

The world is on fire babe

Something is going on

And I'm really scared

Chorus

Everybody thought this was

Going to be one more freakshow

Everybody thought this was going

To be one more of those jokes

Rub our face into the dirt

Til the fire is over

I've been to the edge and

There I stood 'n' looked down

Living in a world

We never made

But is it too late now?

Something is going on

And I'm really scared

Chorus
