It's cold outside and the moon is bright
And I'm all alone tonight
If I was a star that's shining to bright
I'd shine my love to you

It's not the words you say
Neither the ways they're said
And it's not the things you do
That makes me wanna fly to you
Oh baby, yeah

When a star falls from heaven don't ask me why
'Cause when a star falls from heaven gonna see me cry
When stars fall from heaven I don't know why
(Don't know why, oh baby)
When stars fall from heaven gonna see me cry

It's cold outside it's dark out here
You're far and I'm alone
Stars shine bright as the tears rolled down
My burning cheeks as I cry

It's not the words you say
Neither the ways they're said
And it's not the things you do
That makes me wanna fly to you
Oh baby, yeah

When stars fall from heaven don't ask me why
(Don't know why)
When stars fall from heaven gonna see me cry
When stars fall from heaven I don't know why
(Don't know why, oh baby)
When stars fall from heaven gonna see me cry
