I believe someone's out there
Who's gonna help me give
A nameless child loving care
I believe you are out there
You're gonna help me give the Children tender loving care
So much hate has turned to Vengeance
All the laughter has turned to crying
While the mothers lose their children
From war to war
I am hungry and I'm cold and I have no one to hold for
My mother and my father are Dead and gone
Where do I belong?

CHORUS:

The children of Kosovo
are crying for a helping hand
The children of Kosovo
Are dreaming of a peaceful land.

They have beaten my older brother
They have torn away my sister
I'm afraid I want revenge
Is there no other way
Let's hold our hands tightly together
And think as one forever
You and I can make a
Change for a better world.
No more war

CHORUS.
