where there is hatred they sow love where there is injury they sow pardon where there is friction they sow union and error truth doubt faith where there's despair they sow hope where there's darkness light and where there's sadness joy

what's a matter you people, what's a matter you say
what's a matter you people it's gonna be a bright sunshiny day where there's love there's also pain they do not seek to be consoled as much as to console or to be unrsstood has to be understand or to be love as to love for this is in giving that they receive and in pardonning that they are pardoned and in dying that they are born to eternal life

matter you say

to save one's soul save one's life save one's soul save one's life
to save one's soul save one's life
save one's soul save one's life

these are the instruments of peace what's a matter yo people, what's a matter you say
