You call me but a feeling is through Leaving when the moment is over, are there second chances ?
You need me and you know that it's true
Wondering when the moment is over, are there second
chances ?
How can we both survive ? Does life continue on ?
After long goodbyes, pretending we can

Love tonight together, we should love tonight or never.
Will we see the light ? We've got to try and love tonight.
You know the reasons why.
I'm looking through your windows, your shelter when
the rain falls
And in the winter's cold, I'm waiting for you, I'm waiting for you.

You hold me, do a promise we need Wondering when the moment is over, are there second
chances ?
How can we both survive ? Does life continue on ?
After long goodbyes, pretending we can

Love tonight together, we should love tonight or never.
Will we see the light ? We've got to try and love tonight.
You know the reasons why.
I'm looking through your windows, your shelter when
the rain falls
And in the winter's cold, I'm waiting for you, I'm waiting for you.
