Through the braver heart
This pain is falling down
And the quicker we get off
The sooner we all get by
The further you are away
The more it seems forever
And the crazy thoughts we've had
All seem to vanish here

Here ends my luck, you took it all away
It's worthless dying for you now
Comprehend these words: it's all over now
See the blackest sky, hanging over us

When I turn my eyes
I see much clearer
When nothing seems right
I feel its okay

We wake up as friends
Let's break this foundation
Will I take on this chance?
And start all over
I don't know what I'm feeling
But I'm feeling fine without you
I think it's time to move on
And compete in other matches
