I see the blue in your eyes
Baby, what are you hiding?
I catch a glimpse of the truth
And it don't look good, no
I feel the ground fall away

As you fight back tears
And choke the words

You don't love me
You can't say it
After all this time
You don't want me
You can't mean it

Tell me you lied
Yesterday everything
Seemed so okay
How can it be that today
You don't love me?

I thought that I really knew
Who you were, baby
But now my world is a mess
And I'm going down
I can't bare to believe

There's nobody else
The reason is

You don't love me
You can't say it
After all this time
You don't want me
You can't mean it

Tell me you lied
Yesterday everything
Seemed so okay
How can it be that today
You don't love me?

You shattered my heart
And you left me for dead
Truth is that I've been misled
You don't love me

How could we get so close
And end up as strangers?
How could something so good
End up like this?

You don't love me
You can't say it
After all this time
You don't want me
You can't mean it

Tell me you lied
Yesterday everything
Seemed so okay
How can it be that today
You don't love me?

You shattered my heart
And you left me for dead
Truth is that I've been misled
You don't love me
