There are few but the world's been waiting on somebody special
And I wanna be that somebody special
In my life in my night and in my day
He wants in but (Devil) he's just getting in my way

You're so special, know that, you know that you're special
You're so special, know that you're special

It really don't matter what they do and don't matter what they say
Cause in the end I'm gonna gonna have my way
Cause when it comes to living my life you know that I don't play
Cause in the end I'm gonna gonna have my way

It's a new world and maybe it just don't feel right no
Cause it's cool now to be out of mind and out of sight yeah
And if I only knew when this world would come in my life
And I'll see it through I just gotta hold on tight

You're so special, know that, you know that you're special
You're so special, know that you're special

It really don't matter what they do and don't matter what they say
Cause in the end I'm gonna gonna have my way
Cause when it comes to living my life you know that I don't play
Cause in the end I'm gonna gonna have my way
