Now I'm outside, I'm looking inside
I'm watching people through the looking glass

I wanna hear you, I wanna touch you
Can't get in contact what a mess!
Can't get in, but I tried so hard

I'm writing letters, I dial your number
But I'm always disconnected

I'm on a train, I'm on a starship but it's always misdirected
Can't get in, but I tried so hard

I'm an observer, baby, I'm outside
I'm an observer

Now you're on your side, and I'm on my side
I can never break this wall

Timeless stereos, timeless mountains
Till I never hear your call
I can't get in, but I tried so hard

NOW!

Now I'm outside, I'm looking inside
I'm watching people through the looking glass

I wanna hear you, I wanna touch you
I can't get in contact what a mess!
