Hey! Won't you tell me your name?
Tell me your name!
Well, I'm sitting in the dark - waiting like a shark
Can't we say we're playing a game?

Well, it ain't you rolling, stumbling inside
I'm always humbling day and night
I want your hand, babe, got your balloon
Moving in moving out so soon

Hey! Won't you tell me your name?
Tell me your name!
Well, I'm sitting in the dark - waiting like a shark
Can't we say we're playing a game?

Well, it sounds just like tinsel, I'm eager to join
A chorus is appearing at the guest and the grime
I want your money, I've got your balloon
Moving in moving out so soon

Hey! Won't you tell me your name?
Tell me your name!
Well, I'm sitting in the dark - waiting like a shark
Can't we say we're playing a game?
