i know its where we had to end the torch we doused we lit again the flame of our affliction kept us holding on from far away the dreams we had the love we made the times we drank ourselves asleep to wake up to what we believe in what we have and what we need we'll wonder how good it can get much better than this

im in the good life now
i see myself
smiling bigger and wider than you ever knew how
im in the good life now
all by myself
getting better with every regret ill allow

i guess its where the time begins when you get drunk and call again and i cant sit here listening to how bad you want to break away to drink yourself like hemingway so you can make a memory of the things you never turned into and every girl that ill go through theyll wonder how good it can get

i see myself
all by myself

i hear from your friends your still alive i guess i wasted those wishes on nothing

i see myself
all by myself
