There's a million heartbeats
Out here in the dark
And every little step you take Leads
You into the center
'Til you catch a spark

And then you watch it glow
Until it turns into a spotlight
And the world could fall apart
All around you
But two can make it
?????? right on cue

But please
Don't make a fool of me
I spent my whole life believing
Right from the start
I was a fool at heart

There was a young boy singing in a bar next door
And he's singing of love so sweet
But he's much too young to know
What it means
But it makes me smile
I wonder how I'd feel
If he sings his song for real

I know better than to fall for you
You see, every man has a dream to his own
And I've thrown
All but one away
You want to stay

Then please
Don't make a fool of me
I spent my whole life believing
Right from the start
I was a fool at heart

Oh please

Don't make a fool
Don't make a fool
Don't make a fool
Don't make a fool of me
I spent my whole life believing
Right from the start
I was a fool
I was a fool
I was a fool at heart
Yeah

We got time
I know it
Now that your mine
Show it
You and me together
Just get to be
Better and better
Don't let me down
If you see me low
Just pick me off the ground
Don't you let me go
