Cause ya cut it ya match it ya cut it ya match it
you do the final cut yea

cause it's a manifest destiny like a genocide recipe telling lords that wrestle me to be my own race challenge your god dont underestimate the fate of a preordained mass where are my boots and where the hell is my balance the hell you did come down from your planet to see a cocking of a gun oh come if you're gunna get some cause forty seconds later and the cocking of a gun a boy execution and his? special agent scum two officers pushed a boy down on his back searched through his pockets found a vile of crack yea this boy untainted its a typical mythical world we live in untaint me un-name me, un-maim me going to the river cause i think im damn ready

There is a river where riverbed should be

cause its the policy makers, that make us or break us you can be overtaken by the forsaken forsakers and my soul's for sale its a dog eat dog world and the dog wags the tail and we live too much, but we feel too little from the tracks caught in the middle I know your telling me to settle down well you can fool me but you cant fool the whole town

I'd like to jettison your medicine back to where you came from

You keep your bell and eddison away from my grandson stand son on your own bone dont forget the home that you came from dont let them say your name wrong just like larry i take it to the hoop i on one false move in one fell swoop then i then i pass it to the trigger man bow down to the sound if you still can cause there's plenty of catcalls and plents of misfalls and i can attest to the best of te pastfalls never ever have i had to make match with sickness look both ways dispatch with a quickness gimmie some roy, gimmie some speed gather all around to the word and read on till you get to the parts that's righteous it's an unbearable likness

There is a river where riverbed should be

my name is chetro and I do know that I gotta get some money to get the van toed his name is braddigan and im back again i wanna be that three with a tight plan his name is pete repeat petes got the goods spanking on my bass like i know i should lost in the draw for the freak and groom relax and relapse lets synapse this move
