You need a change, I need it too
There's nothing else we could do
You had your chance to seek the truth
But a lie lives inside of you

I told you prepare
Life is unfair so

Refren:

Why do you call me when you're alone in bed?
Why do you blame me for all the tears you shed?
Why can't you see that I just don't give a damn?
You are the one who made what I am

Refren

You say at least we should be friends
But this is not how it will end
I maybe gone but I'm still trying
To save myself from dying

I told you prepare
Life is unfair so

Refren (x2)

Oh oh oh
Oh oh ohhh
Oh ohhh

Forget my face
Your feelings seems to fade
The one you think you love
Is the one you hate

Refren (x2)
