Huge tailspin~is the world gonna win?
Is the nation gonna open up and let us in?
Hard luck! Your policies suck~
Your rhetoric will save your face, but not your skin

This time~it's hard to define
So watch the leaves turn brown for the last time
Too late! You've sealed our fate~
No returns, no emergency debate... but wait!

I hate unhappy endings~and there doesn't have to be one!

Tailspin~your hair's getting thin

Your rhetoric will save your face, but not your council estates

Gee~life is cheap!
The forests pine and the willows weep
Checkmate! You've sealed our fate~
The world is way past its sell-by date

Tailspin~is the world gonna win?
Tailspin's on the outside looking in
Tailspin, I repent my sins
But when I get to heaven will you let me in?
Tailspin, save our kin, save our skin...

The message we are sending is a very real one
The world we are defending could be a very green one
We hate unhappy endings~and
THERE DOESN'T HAVE TO BE ONE!
