Summer, summer, summer in the sky.
Summer in the sky and I'll never find it without you

Summer in the sky I know the sun is hard to get
I'll never find it without you

Hey, hey sunshine you're so bold and let me feel you
It's worth it to wait a while so I can look at your smile
because
It shines for miles and miles

I fell asleep but I didn't dream
I thought the day would come sooner than later
But I'm still here in the same old place

There's a West Coast beach scene in my head
And I wanna fly away from this Midwestern state
And be there instead

Summer in the sky I know the sun is hard to get
I'll never find it without you

Hey, hey sunshine you're so bold and let me feel you
It's worth it to wait a while so I can look at your smile
because
It shines for miles and miles

Miles and miles

I stayed awake to find my place

I dreamed the day would come sooner than later
Where you and I will be face to face

There's a West Coast beach scene in my head
And I wanna fly away from this Midwestern state
And be there instead

Summer in the sky I know the sun is hard to get
I'll never find it without you(you)

Hey, hey sunshine you're so bold and let me feel you

It's worth it to wait a while so I can look at your smile
because
It shines for miles and miles

Summer in the sky I know the sun is hard to get
I'll never find it without you(you)

Hey, hey sunshine you're so bold and let me feel you
It's worth it to wait a while so I can look at your smile
because
It shines for miles and miles

Summer in the sky I know the sun is hard to get
I'll never find it without you(you)

Hey, hey sunshine you're so bold and let me feel you(let me feel you)
It's worth it to wait a while so I can look at your smile
Your smile(your smile, your smile)

Shines for miles and miles
