I wonder where you are today,
If you're near or far away
I watched you leave again, you led my heart astray
If you ever saw my face
Would you know what to say
Or would you look at me like I was out of place

Where did you go? Where did you go?
Where did you run to I'm dying to know
Where did you go? Where did you go?
Is this really the end or will I even see you again

Do you still think of me or what we used to be
When you sleep at night am I ever in your dreams
I'll do anything just to see your face,
I remember when you would've done the same

Where did you go? Where did you go?
Where did you run to I'm dying to know
Where did you go? Where did you go?
Is this really the end or will I even see you again
[2x]

Where did you go? Where did you go?
Where did you run to I'm dying to know
Where did you go? Where did you go?
Is this really the end or will I even see you again
[2x]
