When grandfather dies
life will be strange
when grandfather dies
my whole world will change
when grandfather dies
i'll scream and i'll yell coz i'll be fin rich as hell
so grandfather die
dont keep me in suspense Oh grandfather cough up that inheritance oh grandfather dont hold on another day i love you to death but i've got bills to pay

A stroke would be nice Disease would be cool
I'll scatter his ashes in my new swimming pool I'll jam with the stones, I'll dine with the queen
So let's say we unplug that machine
So grandfather fly to heaven you must pass So grandfather think of all that juicy angel ass
So grandfather die
before the fiscal year Oh how i wish cavorky N were here

For gods sake you must be as old as the hills Im sick of the stench from your diaper spills
Your deaf, dumb, and blind, and an amputee
You donate your blood everytime that you pee
Your arthritis acts up whenever it rains Your so old your penis has vericose veins Oh why dont you die
Oh why must you fight
You old mother fer just walked toward goddamn light Walk toward the light old man

walk toward the light old man

Its all over now

My grandad is dead

A mysterious blow to his wrinkled old head before i collect the small overcote but everything should turn out alright

I'll start working on my grandma tonight
