There's a villain in my head and he's giving me a shock shocks shocks shocks x2
Save me from me x2
His name is leather Mcwhip
And he needs to be stopped Stopped stopped stopped x2
Fly above me,
Fly above my arm
Fly above me
Fly above me
Well I never had much of a lovely go Go go go x2
Leave me having, having error It's like my mind's been touched though I never was born
Was born son x2
Please deform me x2
???
Let me out of my head
in my bed, it's a ???
no more shine
with the frame
of the brain
it's a ???
It's a pencil riot

He catered to the second hand weakness everybody had a second look to make you wanna come on but my mind was a splinter and it never was down I'll swing around the kids, hold my head above and try and hold on ya saved me, saved me

I'm here to sing a song, a song about privilege the spikes you put on your feet when you were crawling and dancing to the top of the human shit pile shit pile

Somehow you managed to hallucinate something that was on all of our minds all of our minds and other people see themselves in you and I can see them in you too-oo-ooooo
In my head, there's a bed, it's unmade
it's a ???
no more ghosts
when the ???
It's a pencil riot
